

Guwahati to host Women Boxing Fed Cup

MUMBAI: The Indian Boxing Federation (IBF) has given the Assam Amateur Association (AABA) rights to host the 8th edition of All India Federation Cup Women Boxing Championship.

Now the AABA will organize the coveted championship at SAT indoor hall in Guwahati from February 17 to 19.

AABA hopes that all the leading women boxers of the country including Mary Kom, take part in the meet. The top eight teams of the last national championship are eligible to take part in this meet.

Indian Railways, All India Police, Haryana, Manipur, Mizoram, Delhi, Madhya Pradesh and Assam have qualified for this championship. All the leading woman pugilists of the country are in one or other of the teams mentioned.
