MUMBAI: Udit Sheth, the team principal of World Series Boxing franchise Venky's Mumbai Fighters, has been appointed as member of WSB Commission by International Boxing Association president Dr Ching Kuo Wu.

"It is indeed a great honor for India that Mr. Sheth has been selected to this prestigious AIBA appointment due to his sincerity, hardwork and dedication in promoting Boxing as a whole and WSB in particular in India," Indian Boxing Federation secretary PKM Raja said in a statement.

"On behalf of Shri Abhay Singh Chautala, President, IABF and all members of the Indian Boxing fraternity, I take this opportunity of congratulating Mr Udit Sheth on this prestigious appointment to AIBA Commission," Raja added.

"IABF wishes him success and hopes that not only will the Mumbai Fighters work hard to try and become the Champion Team in WSB but also that he rises high in the WSB hierarchy, whereby he can contribute towards the promotion and development of the sport of Boxing in India and around the World."

The Aiba WSB Commission is composed of Dr Humbert Furgoni (France) as chairman, Kishen Narsi (India) as vice-chairman and Hernan Salvo (Argentina) as secretary.

Sheth is the sixth member on WSB Commission which also includes Naghi Safarov (Azerbaijan), Paolo Taveggia (Italy), Almassadam Satkaliyev (Kazakhstan), Juan Francisco, Garcia Guerrero (Mexico), Dmitry Lunev (Russia).
